What can I teach with a Broad Field Social Studies license?

The license holder may teach any social studies at the Early Adolescence to Adolescence level, up through grade 10 and any basic or fusion social studies subject in grades 11-12 that is NOT:

- A semester-long discrete course in a PI 34 social studies category (e.g. Psychology)
- An honor, International Baccalaureate (IB), or Advanced Placement (AP) course
- Part of the college preparatory sequence and/or an elective course with more depth of content than basic courses

To teach a course under criteria a, b, or c above the teach must hold a license based on completion of at least a concentration in that subject area.
